

Noncommunicable Diseases Conference Malaysia Abstract Submission Guideline

1. Funding Source: Please indicate the funding source for the research presented where relevant.
2. Abstract Title: The abstract title should reflect the entire study and not focus solely on the results. The NCDM Scientific Committee reserves the right to edit the abstracts' title as deemed appropriate.
3. Co-author(s): All co-authors' full name, institution name and address, email address as well as disclosure information are required for submission. You may list up to 20 individual authors for each abstract
4. Disclosure Declaration: NCDM's policy, which discloses financial interests and other links and manages any conflicts, aims to ensure balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all activities.
 - a) Every author must separately disclose any financial sources they have received for the work they have submitted using the Disclosure Form.
 - b) The grant number and the names of the awarding organisations should be included. It also needs to be mentioned if the funder was not involved in the research.
5. Abstract Submission Themes and Tracks: The submitting author is required to choose a suitable track-and-theme pairing that most accurately aligns with the content of the abstract. The NCDM Scientific Committee reserves the right to recategorize an abstract if deemed necessary.

Tracks	Themes
Cardiovascular & Metabolic	Prevention, Screening & Early Detection
Respiratory	Treatment & Management of NCDs
Neurology & Mental Health	Advocacy, Policy & Collaboration
Diseases of Aging
Diseases of Skin/Other NCDs

6. Abstract Body/Table: The content of the abstract should include background, aims, methods, results, and conclusions of your research. Each abstract is allowed a maximum of 250 words. Illustrations, data tables and figures are not permitted.
